READING PRACTICE (ANSWER)

The tempestuous ocean roared, its mighty waves crashing against the rugged cliffs with unrelenting force. Amidst the tumultuous waters, a lone sailboat struggled, tossed about like a leaf in a storm, fighting against the powerful currents.

Answer the questions below.

3. Explain why one of the quotes from Part B is not an appropriate definition for the word selected in Part A.

---

Quote A ("The tempestuous ocean roared") directly describes the stormy and chaotic nature of the ocean, aligning with the meaning of "tempestuous." The other choices, like "its mighty waves crashing against the rugged cliffs with unrelenting force," focus on different aspects but don't convey the concept of stormy and chaotic as "tempestuous" does.
